

March 7, 2018 5 p.m. to 7 p.m.

Ethical Dilemmas Inside the Breast Cancer Movement: When Big Pharma Comes Knocking

Dr. Sharon Batt will read from her new book
Health Advocacy, Inc.: How Pharmaceutical Funding Changed the Breast Cancer Movement.

A reception will follow.

EV Building, Concordia University
1515 Sainte-Catherine St W, Room: EV 11.655
Take elevators near Mackay St.

Free. All are welcome.

ACTPROJECT.CA/EVENT/BATT

Registration recommended
but not required.

“

Sharon Batt was a pioneer of the breast cancer patients' movement. No one is better positioned to tell the ultimate insider story of how the movement grew, feuded, and was slowly sundered by Big Pharma's clever seductions.”

- MICHELE LANDSBERG, JOURNALIST, BREAST CANCER SURVIVOR AND AUTHOR

DR. SHARON BATT

